Guideline
under the Announcement of Buengkum District Office on Policy of Not Accepting All Kinds of Presents and Gifts from Performing Duties
(No Gift Policy)

1. Background

Corruption and misconduct have long been important problems in Thai society. Causes and factors that lead to obvious corruption in the civil service system are the patronage system and interpersonal patronage behavior. The system and behavior lead to giving or receiving property or any other interest as recompense. Such acts affect not only the exercise of discretion or decision in performing duties under their responsible positions but also the public interest. Such acts, possibly with awareness or unawareness, intention or non-intention, have become common practices that are no longer seen as wrongdoing. The said behavior is considered an ethical misconduct of government officials which possibly leads to wrongful demands and agreeing to accept interest gained from corruption in the government agencies. Although in the past the Government has consistently formulated and enforced policies on solving the problem of corruption and misconduct, such problems still become even more severe and complicated. Therefore, it is necessary to establish guidelines or measures in preventing corruption with concrete results.

The Cabinet on 8th December 2020 approved the National Reformation Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (revised version) which has the overall goal of leading Thailand to the world's top 20 rankings on the Corruption Perception Index (CPI) within 2036. It includes measures to control, supervise, and monitor the management of public and private agencies. The Government data is opened to the public for access and inspection. Disciplinary enforcement and administrative measures are amplified. The efficiency of legal enforcement in the justice system is improved. Appropriate mechanisms in coordination for the prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct at the strategic policy level are provided. The driving of policy and strategy is also set up so that Thailand will become a corruption-free country. The National Reformation Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (revised version) focuses on operating activities that will lead to significant changes in people's lives (Big Rock). Such operation is aimed at achieving concrete national reformation under the remaining period of the national reformation designated to be fulfilled within 5 years under the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand B.E. 2560 (2017). An important reformation activity stated in the 4th reformation activity regarding the development of the Thai civil service system to become transparent and free of benefit, and Clause 1.1 of the 1st Goal to have all governmental agencies declare that all their officials do not accept all kinds of presents and gifts from performing duties (No Gift Policy). Therefore, governmental agencies shall have "all their officials do not accept all kinds of presents and gifts from performing duties".

The said duty has been operated under the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration Act B.E. 2528 (1985) and its amendments. In order that the human resource management of the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration complies with the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration Civil Service and Personnel Act B.E. 2554 (2011); therefore, the Guideline on No Gift Policy is formulated based on activities leading to significant changes to people's lives (Big Rock) under the National Reformation Program (revised version) on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct.
